

NSF I-Corps Hub Southeast Region

Transforming Research into Real-World Impact

I-Corps 5-Week Regional Course

Apply now for this NSF-supported course for entrepreneurial researchers engaged in translating research from laboratory to market.

This Miami-regional course is geared toward faculty, staff and students.

August 14, 2026 - September 11, 2026
Virtual (Zoom)

For additional information, email: s.rajguru@miami.edu

Why Participate?

- Learn how to talk to potential customers, partners, and competitors
- Develop a workflow and business canvas for your startup
- Experience the excitement of creating a startup
- Get post-course support like SBIR/STTR grant prep and consults

Who Should Apply?

- Faculty and scientists looking to apply for SBIR/STTR grants.
- TEAM of at least 2 consisting
 - Entrepreneurial Lead (who aims to move the research forward)
 - Technical Lead (who has deep and direct expertise in the core research/technology)

Important Dates

- August 14, 2026 | Kick-Off Meeting | 9 AM - 1 PM
- August 17-September 4, 2026 | Virtual Office Hours | 30 minutes TBD
- August 28, 2026 | Midpoint Meeting | 9 AM - 11 AM
- September 11, 2026 | Final Meeting | 9 AM - 12 PM

Spots are limited. So REGISTER NOW

MILLER SCHOOL of MEDICINE

COLLEGE of ENGINEERING

UNIVERSITY
OF MIAMI

